Description

At the heart of student life, Jubilee Court is Preston's newest development offering the very best in quality accommodation for students at the University of Central Lancashire. Located just minutes away from the main University campus and the Students' Union bar, Jubilee Court truly is at the heart of student life in Preston.

The 1 bed en-suite apartment is finished to an excellent standard. Jubilee Court offers students an ideal environment for both study and social life.

This property would be excellent for investment purposes due to its location and is currently achieving £98 per person per week inclusive of bills.

This landmark building provides all the essentials including an on-site launderette, generous social spaces, bike storage and a courtyard area for socialising.

Jubilee Court has been designed to help students get as much as possible out of their time at university and for this reason we have taken care of the finer details of student accommodation for you.

From smart furnishings to handy dishwashers, three quarter sized beds to free Broadband Internet access, every apartment is sure to be kitted out with everything you need to feel right at home.

With a dedicated on-site team and 24-hour security, you couldn't be in safer hands.

The apartment must be rented to a student.
