Description

Positioned just a stone's throw from Norton High Street, with its vibrant mix of independent shops, popular bars, cafés and eateries, this spacious period home places everything you could need right on your doorstep, whilst still enjoying a sense of privacy and kerb appeal.

Elevated from the street behind a beautiful front garden and approached by steps leading to the entrance, this charming home immediately captures the character and elegance expected from a property of its era.

Stepping inside, the welcoming vestibule opens into a traditional hallway complete with ceiling arch detailing and staircase rising to the first floor, setting the tone for the accommodation beyond.

The bay-fronted living room is particularly inviting, featuring a beautiful fireplace, deep coving and a tasteful traditional colour palette that enhances the warmth and charm of the room. A second reception room provides excellent versatility and would make an ideal dining room, sitting room or even a home office depending on your needs.

The kitchen is packed with personality and style, centred around a striking Rangemaster cooker with extractor hood above. An inset Belfast sink, freestanding storage units with butcher's block style work surfaces and a stunning larder cupboard all combine to create a kitchen full of character and practicality. To the side of the kitchen, a garden room offers additional space and opens out onto the generous rear yard and leads to the downs stairs Cloakroom / W.C.

To the first floor, the spacious landing leads to the bedrooms and family bathroom. The fourth bedroom benefits from a staircase leading up into the loft space, ideal for storage or occasional use.

Externally, the property enjoys a good size rear yard, providing plenty of outdoor space to relax or entertain.

A fantastic period home brimming with charm, character and generous living space, all within easy reach of Norton High Street. Early viewing is strongly advised through our Norton team.
